STEAK TEMPERATURE CHART

Rare (120F) Seared and still red 75% through the center. Once the heat transfer is completed during the resting period, this steak will achieve The Perfect Steak-tender & juicy.

Medium rare (126F) seared with 50% red centre. Just passed the point of The Perfect Steak.

Medium (134F) seared outside, 25% pink showing inside. Much drier and tougher than The Perfect Steak, but still palatable.

Medium well (150F) done throughout with a slight hint of pink. Past the point of no return.

Well done (160F) 100% brown. Waste of a good quality steak.
